In developed countries, access to antibiotics and vaccines has mostly controlled incidents of childhood pneumonia.

351), which would permanently repeal the Independent Payment Advisory Board (IPAB)